ADVENT TRADITIONS

Wreath: The circle of evergreens is a symbol of God/eternity; green represents hope with Christ's birth.

Window Lights: An Irish tradition remembering the journey of Joseph & Mary; a candle in the window welcomed strangers.

Poinsettia: The arrangement of petals+ recalls the star of Bethlehem; red for the love of the Redeemer.

Candy Canes: An Indiana candymaker made the in a J for Jesus; white represents Christ's sinless nature, red for the blood shed for promise of eternal life.

Crèche: The French word for crib, the crèche has become the traditional tableau of Christ's birth.

St. Francis of Assisi re-enacted the first Christmas scene using live persons and animals over 750 years ago. Today it has become the most important part of most homes at Christmas.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Dear Friends:

Advent is advancing quickly toward its culmination at our celebration of Christmas, just ten days or so from now. Thus, today, Gaudete Sunday, the Church bids us to rejoice. The text from the prophet Isaiah speaks of the steppe rejoicing and blooming, the eyes of the blind being opened, the ears of the deaf being cleared, the lame leaping like a stag, the tongues of the mute singing. Isaiah in his time looked forward with longing to that day when there will be everlasting joy and gladness, when sorrow and mourning shall flee. At Christmas, we will celebrate the birth in time of the One who is the source of our true and lasting joy, the One who turns our sorrows and pain into joy. As Christmas approaches, at a time of year that can leave many of us stressed out and even depressed, may we ask God to pour light into our hearts so that we may grasp the true meaning of this season and find joy in Him who is closer to us that we are even to ourselves.

This Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 PM in St. Agnes Church, we will have our annual Festival of Lessons and Carols. This affords us all the opportunity to step back from the rush of this time of year, to sit in quiet, listening to selections from the Scriptures, and singing hymns and carols of the season. We need this kind of time. It lasts but an hour. I hope that many will take advantage of it.

As Christmas approaches, there are increased opportunities available to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please check the bulletin or be sure to take one of the cards available at the church doors so that you may have a reminder of times for confession. A good confession is a worthy way to cap any proper observance of Advent. Please consider taking advantage of the opportunity, even if, especially if it has been some years since you last went to confession.

Finally, the Annual Collection is doing quite well. At this writing, some $46,000 has been given and we are well on our way to our goal. If you have not made a gift, please do so before December 31 if you wish that gift to be credited for tax purposes. As always, thanks to all who are so generous to the parish and the work it does throughout the year.

All gifts for the St. Agnes Giving Tree must be here by noon today. Thank you for your generosity in helping us extend the spirit of Christmas to our neighbors

OPLATEK wafers are available in the rectory office. Each package is $2.50.

When you buy your tree, get coupons for future visits back to those restaurants!

EARLY TRANSMISSION of bulletins is always required when holidays arrive. Liturgical Publications has holiday vacations, too. Normal deadline is noon on Monday, but with Christmas and New Year coming soon, please note that there are several weeks ahead that require an early submission date for any bulletin notices.

Bulletin notices for the December 29th bulletin must be in the rectory office by noon, December 18th; December 26th for the January 5th bulletin.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

The question put to Jesus in today's gospel is also put to us today: "Are you the one?" Are you the one who will give guidance to the children in your life or must they look to TV sitcoms, films, videos and music lyrics for direction? Are you the one? Will you be the one?

The Peter F. Phelan, Jr. Giving Tree Committee would like to thank the parishioners of Precious Blood Parish for their overwhelming generosity. The abundance of beautifully wrapped and thoughtfully purchased gifts brought joy to so many needy men, women, and children during this Christmas season. May God bless you all and may you and your families experience the same joy and happiness you brought to others.

"Those who die in God's grace and friendship live forever with Christ. Heaven is not an abstract idea, but a true and lasting relationship with God that is beyond all earthly description and understanding. We look forward to the resurrection of the dead and everlasting life by preparing now, in hope, for our passage from this life into eternal life."
