PAUL MIKI & COMPANIONS

In 1597, 26 martyrs of Japan (priests, brothers, laymen) were crucified on a hill, now known as the Holy Mountain, overlooking Nagasaki. Brother Paul Miki, a Jesuit & native of Japan, while hanging on a cross, preached to the people gathered:

"The sentence of judgment says these men came to Japan from the Philippines, but I did not come from any other country, I am a true Japanese. The only reason for my being killed is that I have taught the doctrine of Christ. I thank God that it is for this reason I die.

"Ask Christ to help you to become happy. I obey Christ. After Christ's example I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain."

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

PASTORAL SHARINGS

Dear Friends:

Mr. Frank Lacerenza, the principal of St. Mary School for almost thirty years, will be retiring at the end of June. This necessitated the appointment of a new principal.

Early in the fall, a search committee was appointed from members of the parish School Board who are not current school parents. The position of principal was announced as open and applications were solicited. This included the website of the Archdiocese of Hartford and the Office of Education, Evangelization and Catechesis of the Archdiocese as well. A number of worthy candidates submitted applications. These were reviewed carefully and interviews with prospective and promising candidates were conducted. In addition to this, input was solicited from the parents of current students at the school as well as from the faculty.

After a careful review of all pertinent materials, a recommendation from the search committee was transmitted to me. After some consideration, I accepted the recommendation of the search committee, offered the position to the recommended candidate, and then, on the acceptance of the offer, I asked Sr. Mary Grace Walsh, ACSJ, the Provost for Education, Evangelization and Catechesis of the Archdiocese of Hartford, for approval. This was granted on Tuesday, January 21.

Therefore, I announce that I have appointed Mr. Dominic Corrado as the new principal of St. Mary School, effective July 1, 2020. Mr. Corrado comes to us with significant qualifications, having served as a teacher and faculty member at Notre Dame High School in West Haven for many years, and for the past two years, successfully as principal of Holy Trinity School in Wallingford. Mr. Corrado is a man of faith, well-qualified, and will serve well as the new principal of our school as we lead it into the near future.

I welcome Mr. Corrado as our new principal and I know that the St. Mary School community will welcome him and work with him to make our school one of the best in the Archdiocese, a school that serves its students very well.

Rev. Joseph J. Xmalino

The rosary is prayed every weekday morning after Mass. If you have a few minutes, join the small group before you begin your daily chores.

CANDLEMAS DAY

The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord is also known throughout the Church by the popular name, Candlemas Day. It is the celebration of the purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary according to the Jewish ritual of cleansing after childbirth.

(See Leviticus 12:1-8)

Candles are blessed on this day as "a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to thy people Israel." (Lk 2:32)

Effective in September, 2020, the Pastoral Council of Precious Blood Parish will have 7 openings for new members. If you have an interest in serving your parish in this capacity, please send an email to one of the following:

Mary Beth Kriksciun marykrik@aol.com

Brian Burgh brian.burgh@frontier.com

Your response should include your mailing address, telephone number and church you are attending. All requests for consideration must be received by end of day February 16, 2020.

The Pastoral Council thanks you for your interest.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

It is in our family where we learn to be merciful and comforting to others. The Beatitudes of the Kingdom of God begin at home and depend on you. Parents lead the way.

“When parents say ‘yes’ to life for their child, they are saying ‘yes’ to the most loving and healing path for all involved. When God invites us to draw close to him by following his commandments, he does so because he wants what is best for us. By saying ‘yes’ to life for their child, which is morally good and right, parents are placing their trust in God and embracing their child and the life their child has been given for as long as it is given.”
