Complete dedication to what he saw as God's will for him dominated the life of John Baptist de la Salle whose feast day is celebrated on April 7th. In 1950 Pope Pius XII named him patron of schoolteachers for his efforts in upgrading school instruction. His life was closely entwined with the community of religious men he founded, the Brothers of the Christian School (Christian Brothers, or De La Salle Brothers). The community was successful in educating boys of poor families using methods designed by John, preparing teachers in the first training college for teachers and also setting up homes and schools for young delinquents of wealthy families.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF LENT

All celebrations for Holy Week were scheduled for normal observations. They will not take place this year.

All Mass intentions will be said privately by one of our priests, but the Tridium events listed on page 1 cannot occur because of the COVID-19 virus.

It is truly unfortunate that we cannot celebrate our greatest feast day together this year.

While the global situation regarding the coronavirus remains critical, we must not lose faith in the goodness of Jesus and His love for us.

Let us remember the words of Saint Paul:

“What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?”

As it is written, ‘for your sake we are being slain all the day; we are looked upon as sheep to be slaughtered.’

In all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Romans 8:35-39

This Sunday before Easter, Palm Sunday, or Passion Sunday, ushers in the Holy Week commemoration of the mystery of Christ’s resurrection.

The Resurrection of Christ is the center, the very heart of the history of salvation. Easter is the highpoint of the Christian year. We celebrate Christ’s triumph over death and the cross in His resurrection.

On the third day after His death Christ rose again. His soul was reunited with His body and He rose from the tomb glorious and immortal. He waited three days to convince everyone that he had really died. He rose from the grave to confirm our faith in his divinity. Because he has risen, we can hope to rise again at the end of the world. Because He has risen from the grave, the new life of grace is given to our souls. Because he was God, he gave to His body and soul the power to unite with one another again. By the power of God Christ, Who had died on Calvary, rose again on the first Easter Sunday. He rose again in His own human body which still bore the scars of His Passion. He chose to retrain them to prove to men that it was really Himself who had risen.

St. Thomas Aquinas
Summa Theologica

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

“My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the most Holy Sacrament. I love thee about all things, and I desire to receive Thee into my soul. Since I can not now receive thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace thee, as if thou wert already there, and unite myself wholly to Thee; never permit me to be separated from Thee.”

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

The cruel death of Jesus tells us bad things can and do happen to very good people. It also tells us God is present during the suffering. Bad things can and do happen but God does not abandon us.

Anyone who reads the history of Eastern Europe cannot help but chance on the name of Stanislaus, the saintly but tragic bishop of Krakow, patron of Poland. He is remembered with Saints Thomas More and Thomas Becket for vigorous opposition to the evils of unjust government. Along with John the Baptist, these men are a few of the prophets who dared to denounce corruption in high places.

They follow in the footsteps of Jesus himself who pointed out the moral corruption in the religious leadership of his day.

His feast day is celebrated on April 11th.

ST. MARY PRESCHOOL ADDS NEW CLASS

St. Mary Preschool has announced they are adding a new enrollment option to their 3 year old program for the 2020-2021 school year. In addition to their 3 day classes, they are adding a 5 full day option for children who are 3 years old by September 1, 2020.

Ven. Fulton J. Sheen

“The world’s greatest need is someone who will understand that there is no greater conquest than victory over oneself; someone who will realize that real worth is achieved not so much by activity, as by silence; who will seek first the Kingdom of God and His justice, and put into actual practice the law that it is only by dying to the life of the body that we ever live to the life of the spirit; who will brave the taunts of a Good Friday to win the joy of an Easter Sunday.”
