SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

“My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the most Holy Sacrament. I love thee about all things, and I desire to receive Thee into my soul. Since I can not now receive thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace thee, as if thou wert already there, and unite myself wholly to Thee; never permit me to be separated from Thee.”

“Don’t worry about anything, but pray about everything. With thankful hearts offer up your prayers and requests to God. Then, because you belong to Christ Jesus, God will bless you with peace that no one can completely understand. And this peace will control the way you think and feel.

Philippians 4:6-7

EASTER SUNDAY

Dear Friends:

This message comes to all of you as we celebrate Easter. Easter of 2020 will be remembered by some perhaps as “the Easter that never was.” That, I would emphatically maintain, is false. This Easter unlike any other in our lives before or, I hope, hereafter, will closely resemble the first Easter almost twenty centuries ago. With that in mind, I share with you as my gift this Easter, the following reflection which I discovered on a Facebook page:

“The very first Easter was not in a crowded worship space with singing and praising. On the very first Easter, the disciples were locked in their house. It was dangerous for them to come out. They were afraid. They wanted to believe the good news they had heard from the women, that Jesus had risen. But it seemed too good to be true. They were living in a time of such despair and such fear. If they left their homes, their lives and the lives of their loved ones might be at risk. Could a miracle really have happened? Could life really have won out over death? Could this time of terror and fear be really coming to an end?

Alone in their homes, they dared to believe that hope was possible, that the long night was over and morning had broken, that God’s love was the most powerful of all, even though it didn’t seem quite real yet. Eventually, they were able to leave their homes, when the fear and danger had subsided. They went about celebrating and spreading the good news that Jesus was risen and love was the most powerful force on the earth.

This year, we might get to experience a taste of what that first Easter was like, still in our homes daring to believe that hope is on the horizon. Then, after a while, when it is safe for all people, when it is the most loving choice, we will come out, gathering together, singing and shouting the good news that God brings life even out of death, that love has the final say!

This year we might get the closest taste we have had yet to what that first Easter was like!

THIS IS THE DAY THE LORD HAS MADE!
LET US BE GLAD AND REJOICE!

From all of us here at Precious Blood Parish, a blessed, hope-filled Easter to you all!

Have a blessed week!

Rev. Robert J. Lumbino

Prayer of Pope Francis Prayer During a Pandemic

O Mary, you always brighten our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.

We entrust ourselves to you,

Health of the Sick,

who, at the Cross, took part in Jesus’ pain
while remaining steadfast in faith.

O loving Mother, you know what we need,
and we are confident you will provide for us
as at Cana in Galilee.

Intercede for us with your Son Jesus,
the Divine Physician,

for those who have fallen ill,
for those who are vulnerable,
and for those who have died.

Intercede also for those charged with protecting the health and safety of others and for those who are tending to the sick and seeking a cure.

Help us, O Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who took upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows,
so as to lead us, through the Cross,
to the glory of the Resurrection. Amen.

Under thy protection we seek refuge,
O Holy Mother of God.

In our needs, despise not our petitions,
but deliver us always from all dangers,
O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen

Deacon John

APRIL 12, 2020

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Today's gospel instructs us Jesus "had to rise from the dead." The dying we experience with unmet expectations in marriage and parenting is normal to family life. Families must rise above disappointments and be Easter people all year long.

In the early tradition of the Church, Easter was the day when new members were welcomed into the community by baptism.

Today the entire community makes their profession of faith by renewing their baptismal vows. We suggest that you follow this tradition with your family on Easter Sunday by professing your faith, perhaps at the Easter dinner table, by reciting the Apostle's Creed together.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, the Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day He arose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

ST. MARY PRESCHOOL ADDS NEW CLASS

St. Mary Preschool has announced they are adding a new enrollment option to their 3 year old program for the 2020-2021 school year. In addition to their 3 day classes, they are adding a 5 full day option for children who are 3 years old by September 1, 2020.
