Precious Blood Parish is a Roman Catholic community of faith in Milford, Connecticut rooted in the Word of God and the sacraments, especially the Eucharist. We are missionary disciples who seek to bring the presence and the message of Jesus Christ to others through prayer, faith formation and assisting the needy through ministries grounded in the works of mercy.

PARISH TRUSTEES

Suzanne Beliveau and Earl Whiskeyman

On Friday, August 13, at the Oakdale Theater in Wallingford, we as the clergy and laity of the Archdiocese of Hartford will gather to celebrate the closing Mass of the Archdiocesan Synod. Each parish has been asked to send thirty (no more and no less) representatives to the Mass on August 13. We have hired a coach bus for transporting our parish representatives to the Mass. It will leave the St. Mary parking lot at 4:00 PM and should return about 10:00 PM. If you would like to go to the Mass and ride the bus, please contact Deacon John and we will put your name on the list. If we exceed thirty people in terms of interest, we will start a waiting list.

Almighty God, Watch over and protect our nation's military members and their families. Sustain them with your everlasting arms. As they serve around the world, we ask that you guard their families and loved ones back home.

HELP HAITI The Precious Blood Parish Haiti Twinning committee will have a table at the Milford Oyster Festival, Saturday, August 21st on the Green. We will be selling water in hope of collecting donations for our work in Marbial. Life in Haiti is dire right now. The country is in turmoil over the assassination of its president along with widespread famine. Our parish of St. Therese is particularly in need. If you are at the festival please drop by, buy a bottle of water and talk to some our members about the work we are doing. We will be so happy to see you!!

A Note From Deacon John

More summer thoughts ...

Are you connected? Vacation is a time to re-connect to what matters, family, friends, oneself. But most of all, to God. When you see the smile of a grandchild, and you see clearly that familiar smile of their parent, you know that love is at work. When you marvel at the sunrise or sunset that you miss most days, you know that love is at work. When you feel like you are rested for the first time in a while, then you know that love is at work. Scripture tells us clearly that God is love.

Jesus Christ, the risen Lord, feeds us with His presence. We gather at His table to be fed, we gather at His table, and He is present. Let all those you encounter know you see Him in their smile, let all those you meet know you meet Him in their struggles. Carry the Lord Jesus with you from the table where you are fed and bring His presence to all you meet. Invite them by your attitude and actions to join at this table, and celebrate that He is with us, continues to be with us, and will always be with us.

May God's blessings be with you and may the respite of summer be the reconnection you may need. God is there in the quiet, in the stillness, but especially with you in the mess of life.

Deacon John
