It is important that when you give to any charitable organizations, you are confident that the funds received are being used wisely. Be assured that your gift to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal supports the ministries and programs indicated in the 2023 Appeal literature! Organizations such as Beth El Center & John Rigely Food Pantry right here in our own town received funding from the Appeal's Vicariate Outreach Program that makes a difference in the lives of our local neighbors. Please visit the Appeal website at www.archdioceseofhartford.org to learn more and make you gift today.

Join us as we follow Jesus along the way of the cross. Fridays, through March 31st at 7:30 pm at St. Agnes Church.

Be part of it! The Junior branch of the Legion of Mary is inviting all boys & girls aged 10-18 to join this special group of young people. It is a unique way to learn more about Jesus, Mary and the saints. Meetings are held each Sunday morning from 10-11:30 am in the rectory basement of St. Mary Church. For more information please contact Sharon DiNapoli at 203-799-8670

The by-laws of the St. Joseph Society require the elections of officers every two years. All members, in good standing, can nominate themselves or other members at the monthly meeting on April 3 in Fr. Callahan Hall. The election of nominated members will be held at the following meeting on May 1.

From the Desk of the Pastor ....

Dear Friends:

The days of Lent are passing very quickly. As we enter this fifth week of Lent, the week before Holy Week, you will notice something rather striking, rather stark, in our churches. The statues have been veiled in purple cloth. They have been hidden from our sight. This custom was quite common in the Church of yesterday, when on Passion Sunday (what we now call the Fifth Sunday of Lent), the traditional Gospel reading told of a confrontation between Jesus and the Jewish religious authorities centered on the question of who Jesus is. At the end of the story, his opponents we are told “picked up rocks to throw at him; but Jesus hid and went out of the temple area.” This reference to Jesus hiding himself is an allusion to the fact that, as the Gospels tell us, during most of his final days on earth before his death, Jesus remained out of sight away from the crowds.

For us, this veiling of the statues should signal that something important is on the horizon. Something significant is about to be revealed to us, and that is to be found ironically in Christ crucified. As the preface prayed at Mass during this week proclaims, “For through the saving Passion of your Son the whole world has received a heart to confess the infinite power of your majesty, since by the wondrous power of the Cross, your judgment on the world is now revealed and the authority of Christ crucified.” We veil images of saints, but leave the crucifix unveiled to direct our focus where it properly should be in these next days of Lent: on the Cross of Christ, an instrument of suffering, death and shame in the eyes of the world, but for us, the ultimate sign of God’s goodness, power, and love for us all. This is made all the clearer when we reflect on the prayer we use at the Stations of the Cross: “We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you, for by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.” May we take some time during these waning days of Lent to meditate on the Cross of Christ, which represents the price of our salvation and the length to which God would go to save us all.

Fr. Lijo and I are making ourselves particularly available in these next two weeks to visit those who are homebound and unable to get out to church. We would be happy to hear confessions, offer the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick and bring Communion. Please contact the rectory so that we can set up a time to come for a visit.

Finally, one of the essential parts of a worthy celebration of Lent is to take the time to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. To that end, I remind everyone that we are available to hear confessions for two hours each week and that there are two additional hours for confessions scheduled for Holy Saturday morning at St. Agnes. Of course, either Fr. Lijo or myself would be most happy to hear confessions by appointment if the regularly scheduled hours do not work with you. Just call the rectory (203) 878-3571 to make an appointment with either one of us.

Have a good week!

Rev. Joseph L. Lijo

Any questions about the application process can be directed to Suzanne Beliveau, Scholarship Chair at subelive@me.com
