A MEDITATION FROM POPE FRANCIS

For God, you have worth; you are not insignificant. You are important to him, for you are the work of his hands. That is why he is concerned about you and looks to you with affection. He does not keep track of your failings and he always helps you learn something even from your mistakes, because he loves you. Try to keep still for a moment and let yourself feel his love. Try to silence all the noise within, and rest for a second in his loving embrace. It is the love of the Lord: a daily, discreet and respectful love; a love that is free and freeing, a love that heals and raises up. The love of the Lord has to do more with raising up than knocking down, with reconciling than forbidding, with offering new changes than condemning, with the future than the past. Beloved of the Lord, how valuable you must be if you were redeemed by the precious blood of Christ! You are priceless! You are not up for sale! Please, do not let yourselves be bought. You must repeat this always: I am not up for sale; I do not have a price.

The Holy Spirit is the one who quietly opens hearts to receive that message. He keeps alive our hope of salvation. The Holy Spirit fills the heart of the risen Christ and then flows over into your lives. When you receive the Spirit, he draws you ever more deeply into the heart of Christ, so that you can grow in his love, his life, and his power. Ask the Holy Spirit each day to help you experience anew the great message. For those who trust in the Lord, are like a tree planted by water sending out its roots by the stream; it shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green (Jer. 17:8). While youths shall faint and be weary (Is. 40:30), those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not be faint (Is. 40:31).

There is Group Rosary Recitation at Saint Mary Monday -Saturday after the 8:00 am Mass and at Saint Agnes Monday-Friday at 9:30 am and Sundays at 9:45 am.

All are welcome to join us.

Do you feel God is calling you to something greater in life?
Do you believe God is calling you to become a Priest?

Pope Francis once said that "Priesthood is not a career: it is a service, a service for God and His people. And a service of God to his people has "traces", it has style, a style that you must follow. A style of closeness, a style of compassion, and style of tenderness. It is the style of God. Closeness, compassion and tenderness."

If you feel like God is calling you to his vocation of service reach out to Fr. John or the vocation director Fr. Michael Casey, at 860-761-7456 or email vocations@aohct.org or visit www.hartfordpriest.com

Altar Servers

The Primary roll of the Altar Server is to assist our priests and deacons at Mass and other church liturgies. Altar Servers need be in grade 3 or higher and have received the sacrament of First Holy Communion.

Lectors

This special group of liturgical readers have the significant responsibility of proclaiming the Word of God during Mass. Members believe that to be a Lector is not a job but a beautiful, meaningful ministry and a privilege. Members should be in high school or older and be able to articulate and speak clearly in front of people.

Eucharistic Ministers

These ministers have the honor of assisting the priest in the distribution of the Precious Body and Blood of Christ at Mass and if comfortable to our homebound members of the parish. Members need to 18 years or older, a Catholic in good standing, and approved by the Pastor.

Greeter Ministry

This Ministry welcomes the congregation through the gift of hospitality which is shared with fellow parishioners as they come to worship. There is an ongoing need for greeter volunteers for this most rewarding ministry.

If you are interesting in getting more information or joining any of the above ministries please call the parish office at 203-878-3571

From the Desk of the Pastor .....

Dear Friends:

This Sunday's Gospel presents us with the rather well-known "Parable of the Sower" in which Jesus speaks of a farmer sowing seed liberally, without any concern as to where the seed might land. Some falls on the hardened path, where it has no chance to take root. Other seed falls among the thorns and thistles, where they are overwhelmed and choked off. Still other seed falls on rocky ground which is not in any way conducive to the production of good fruit. Finally, some seed falls on good, rich soil where it produces an abundance of good fruit.

The image of the "soil" or the "ground" on which the seed falls refers to our hearts, which can be, due to any number of circumstances, unreceptive to the seed, the word of God sown in us. This image should lead all of us to ask ourselves just what kind of place in our hearts we have or have not prepared for the word of God which is so freely sown among us. Some of us have been hardened by sinful lives and we offer the word no place to penetrate or grow. Others of us have allowed ourselves to fall away from the fervent practice of our faith and that prevents us from being receptive to the word of God preached to us. We are rootless drifters who have no connection to the Lord and, as such, make it difficult for God to work his wonders in our lives. Still others of us have been overcome by the burdens, the cares, the worries, and, even in the case of some, the sinful pleasures of life that they choke the word off and do not allow it to enter our lives and grow.

Wherever we may be in our journey of faith, we must never despair. Nor should we ever rest on our laurels. All of us have fallen short of what God has called us to be in life, and few, if any of us, are so far along the path of holiness and perfection that we can say we have reached our goal. The challenge presented by the parable in the Gospel today is simple. We are asked to open ourselves to the word of God, to engage ourselves in the reading and the praying of the Scriptures. I would hope that many, if not most of us, have personal copies of the Bible. That is a bare minimum requirement.

However, having a copy of the Bible but not ever taking the time to read it is insufficient. The Bible is not some kind of artifact to have in the home and rarely to be opened. It is never meant to be a coffee table book or a volume that sits among other books in our bookcases.

Happily, the Church offers us a way to engage ourselves, that is, our hearts and our lives, with the word of God. We are blessed as Catholics with the Lectionary, the book of sacred readings from Scripture used at every Mass. Over a three-year cycle, we as Catholics read from almost every book in the Bible, both in the Old Testament as well as the New Testament. A good way to engage ourselves with the Bible is to read it "along with the Church." Every week in this bulletin, we will list the readings for the daily Masses, including Sunday Mass. Open your Bible and find the selected passages. Read them slowly and prayerfully as part of your daily spiritual exercises and as a way of preparing for the Mass. Ask the Lord to speak to you, to your way of life, in whatever way he chooses as you read and pray with the word. Make this effort and you will find your life changed. You will grow closer to God and it may well make all the difference in the world.

A highly recommended way of praying with Scripture is known as lectio divina. I would encourage you to look lectio divina up online if you have a computer and begin to make use of it. There are also books written on this method of reading and praying with Scripture. It is very powerful indeed.

A final note I would make is to comment on our new and expanded parish bulletin. This has been made possible by many advertisers who have confidence in the size of our parish community. What we can all do by way of appreciation for them is to support, whenever possible, the businesses that make our bulletin a reality. I thank them for their support, and going forward, we will highlight a bulletin advertiser each week, both in the bulletin itself as well as on parish social media outlets.

Have a good week!

Rev. Andrew X. ...
