Precious Blood Ladies Guild is collecting winter coats, gloves, hats, scarves, sweatshirts and donating them to Milford's Beth El Center. The population of homeless people here in our own city is continuously growing and as winter approaches these individuals are living on the streets, staying in emergency accommodations and have no permanent house or place to live safely and warmly. This cold weather clothing drive will continue through Tuesday November 14th at which time Jennifer Paradis, the Executive Director of Beth El, will be present to accept our clothing donations and expound on Beth El's mission to extend dignity and respect to all individuals. If a parishioner would like to participate in donating, kindly bring your new or slightly used warm weather gear donation to Danielle in the Rectory Office during normal business hours, Mon-Fri 9am -2pm by Tuesday November 14th or to Father Cronin Hall after 12pm on November 14th. Let's experience the feeling of "thanks" and "giving".

Jonathan Law High School Post Prom Committee will be hosting a Comedy Night featuring comedian Dave Reilly on Friday, November 10th at 8:00pm in the Jonathan Law High School Auditorium. Tickets are $30 in advance and $40 at the door. As a bonus, with your advance ticket purchase you can receive 10% off your dinner purchase at Bin 100 or Dockside Brewery the night of the show. Just show your ticket purchase receipt. Come out, have some laughs and support a great cause. Use the below QR code to buy your tickets. Any questions, contact Julie DeProfio at carldeprofio@sbcglobal.net

The Santa Maria Council of the Knights of Columbus will again be selling Boscov's gift cards for their Friends Helping Friends Discount Day. Gift Cards cost $5 each and entitle the buyer to receive up to a 25% discount on in-store purchases on Wednesday, October 18th. Knights will be selling the Cards after all Masses at both churches the weekends of Oct 7-8 and 14-15.

The money collected stays with the Knights, and will be used to provide Thanksgiving gift cards (or turkeys) for underprivileged families in Milford. Boscov's generously offers these discount cards as a way to support the good works of nonprofit organizations.

Buy a card, save money on your purchases, and help provide a Thanksgiving dinner to those who cant afford one otherwise.

Join us on Saturday, October 28th, Father Callahan Hall at St. Agnes Church. Doors open at 6:00 p.m. LAST WEEKEND OF TICKET SALES OCTOBER 22ND . Tickets on sale at St. Mary's Rectory until October 24h. No tickets sold at the door. $40 per person.

The program will provide information on fall prevention. There will also be individual balance assessments. All are invited and no preregister is necessary.

The members of the Senior Legion of Mary honor October as Mary's rosary month by making mission rosaries. Each decade is different color depicting various regions of the world. Rosaries are available at the entrance of each church. Let's join together this October in praying for God's people the world over for peace and unity.

A DAY WITH MARY

Coming Soon!

Saturday, December 2, 9AM-3PM
FREE Day Retreat Right Here at Saint Agnes Church! "A Day With Mary" is a Marian-Eucharistic day of prayer with the goal of increasing love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This prayerful retreat hosted by the Franciscan Friars of the Immaculate includes Mass, Confession, Marian Procession, Fatima Video, Stations of the Cross, and Conferment of the Brown Scapular and Miraculous Medal and more. Sponsored by the Legion of Mary.

The Precious Blood Parish Knights of Columbus Assembly No. 3627, will collect worn and unusable US Flags at the Masses on November 11th & 12th. There will be a collection bin at the Main entrance of both St Agnes and St Marys. The collected flags will be properly retired by the Knights of Columbus in conjunction with the American Legion.

A Note from Deacon John

At the doors of both our churches, you will find envelopes for All Souls Day, which is November 2. All Saints Day, November 1, is a Holy Day of Obligation, All Souls is the day when we remember all our dead. During the month of November, all the envelopes for All Souls are collected, and placed on the two altars, and special prayers are said for all our beloved dead. You can put your envelope in the basket on the weekend. Grief is hard, and is a process, and points us toward our faith in the resurrection. Jesus' death and resurrection are His promise to us that death does not have the final word, that death is overcome, and we are all created for this life eternal by our loving God.

What is striking in the gospels, and all of scripture, is the enduring love God has for each one of us. Our command, in a nutshell, is to love the Lord with all our heart, our mind, and soul, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. As well as we might learn to love, we often fall short. God's love never falls short, and God's love is powerful. So powerful, it is not incorrect to say that God's love is stronger than death. This is why we are a pro-life church because God's love leads us to life.

We see this clearly each week when we worship together, and Jesus offers himself again and again for us. He does so because He loves us, not because any of us deserve His sacrifice. This should lead us to a posture of gratitude, and accompanying actions that express our gratitude. We need to reach out to those who are poor, those who are sick and suffering, those on the margins of society. Our prayer should include all those on the margins, and all those in desperate circumstances, like in parts of the middle east and Ukraine. When our prayer points us toward the sacrifice of our Savior, then we are better able to model the sacrifice we are each called to emulate.

As we are in October, a month dedicated to the Rosary, may our rosaries and all our prayers help us to honor our beloved dead, lead us to do more for those in need, and bring each of us to a greater appreciation of all God had done for us. God bless you all.

Deacon John
