WINTER ITEMS NEEDED

Precious Blood Ladies Guild is collecting winter coats, gloves, hats, scarves, sweatshirts and donating them to Milford's Beth El Center. The population of homeless people here in our own city is continuously growing and as winter approaches these individuals are living on the streets, staying in emergency accommodations and have no permanent house or place to live safely and warmly. This cold weather clothing drive will continue through Tuesday November 14th at which time Jennifer Paradis, the Executive Director of Beth El, will be present to accept our clothing donations and expound on Beth El's mission to extend dignity and respect to all individuals. If a parishioner would like to participate in donating, kindly bring your new or slightly used warm weather gear donation to Danielle in the Rectory Office during normal business hours, Mon-Fri 9am -2pm by Tuesday November 14th or to Father Cronin Hall after 12pm on November 14th. Let's experience the feeling of "thanks" and "giving".

THANK YOU VETERANS!

Words from Deacon John

In the gospel last weekend, Jesus summarizes the commandments into just two; love God and love your neighbor. In the challenging world we live in, where often we can see no alternative to just melting into despair, what are we to do to live out these commands? Here are some suggestions:

First, show you love God by praying passionately. Pray for those who are aliens and need acceptance. Pray for those who are poor and need sustenance. Pray for our neighbors in Lewiston, Maine. Pray for those innocents in harms way in the middle east, especially the children. Pray for the people of Ukraine. Pray passionately for peace.

Second, show you love your neighbor by passionately helping others. Accept them for who they are. Show your love of neighbor by helping to feed those who are hungry. Show you love your neighbor by reaching out to those who need that care. Put your love into action.

Third, and most important. Passionately live out your faith by being a person of hope. Show hope in the face of despair, show hope in the light of disappointment, show hope in spite of adversity. Our hope is based in the promise of the Resurrection, that death does not have the final word, but that our faith in Jesus can lead us to His promise of everlasting life.

Hope, shining forth from us, can be the beacon someone needs to endure in the face of depressing news and ongoing anxiety. You can be that beacon, we all can be that beacon, reflecting God's love out to all. God's radiant love, shining through us, can be the beacon to our community, our nation, and our world. If we are to become what we celebrate when we gather for Eucharist, as we are called to do, then we must strive to be the presence of the one who calls us to love.

May our passion lead us to love God and neighbor more, and may our love for God and neighbor lead others to want to do the same. This is the best antidote to despair.

Deacon John

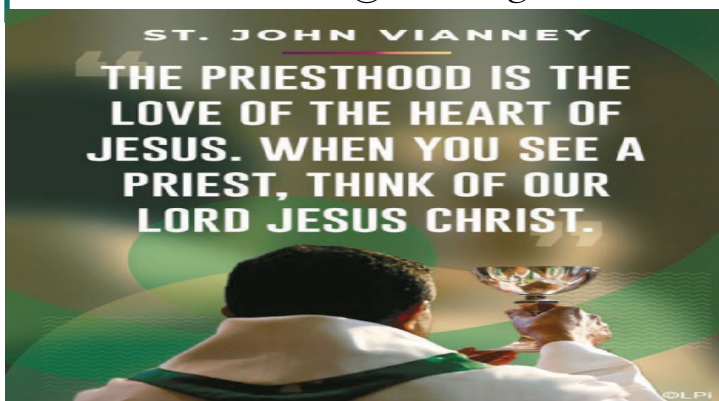

National Vocation Awareness Week

Yes, there are women and men considering a vocation to the priesthood and religious life. But you may ask "Why?"

Newer candidates identify their primary reasons for coming to religious life as a sense of call, a desire to deepen their prayer and spiritual life, and a desire to live and work with others who share their faith and values.

Just as we pray for priestly vocations after each and every Mass, Please consider adding a daily prayer for women and men who may be wondering if they have a call to be religious sisters and brothers. Your prayer could be the gentle nudge that makes the difference in the life a man or woman struggling to know God's will in their life.

If you feel like God is calling you to this vocation of service. Reach out to
