Giving Tree Donations

Please take a tag from the Saint Agnes Giving Tree and return your gift placed in a gift bag by Sunday Dec 10th by 1pm. Milford Healthcare, Helping Hands and Beth El Center are the groups we will be supporting. Thank you for your kindness and generosity. If you have any questions please call Pat Byrne at 203-988-5429.

GIVING TREE

ALL GIFTS NEED TO BE RETURNED BY THIS SUNDAY, DEC 10TH AT 5:30 PM. Most of the charitable organizations have their Christmas parties the week of Dec 11th. and you wouldn't want to disappoint those who count on this one holiday gift. If you forgot to purchase the item, please return the tag. If you misplaced the tag, please purchase a grocery cert and put it in the wooden box under the Giving Tree sign. For those of you who returned your gifts, thank you very much for your generosity.

Parkinson Support

Please note that because of the Christmas Holiday we will be holding our meeting on the 2nd Wednesday in December instead of the 3rd. The date is 12/13 at 1:00 in the Father Cronin Hall. Our speaker will be Kaitlyn Chemitz a physical therapist in the Intensive Rehab. Unit at Yale New Haven/ Milford Hospital. It will be followed by a Christmas social. Everyone is being asked to bring a snack or dessert if possible.

Please note that because of the Christmas Holiday the book club will be holding our monthly meeting on week earlier. Book club will take place on Wednesday December 13th at 3:00 pm this month.

The Knights of Columbus are selling Luminaries this weekend after all Masses at St. Mary's. The Luminaries will be a lighted display at all the Christmas Masses at St. Mary's and add a personalized festive touch to the Christmas decorations in the church. You are encouraged to add your personal decorations to each Luminary—markers and such are available at the table, or you can take it home and return it decorated the following week.

At the same time, the Knights will be selling Keep Christ in Christmas car magnets and lapel buttons to show your support of the true meaning of Christmas. Stop by Father Cronin Hall as you exit the church to see what is available.

The tradition of the Oplatki originated in Poland. The Oplatki are enjoyed by families, typically right before the Christmas Eve meal. Oplatki is available now in the rectory office or in the sacristy at both churches. The cost for Oplatki is $3.00 per pack.

Due to lack of participation the Dec 16th Movie Night is canceled.

The next meeting of the ladies guild is Tuesday December 12. It will be our Christmas party. Hors d'oeuvres and desserts will be served. All women of the parish are invited. If you would like to participate in our ornament exchange please bring a wrapped ornament. It is not necessary to participate to attend the party.

CONFESSION SCHEDULE

The regular (with one exception) schedule will be in effect for Advent with the addition of two hours of confessions heard on the morning of Saturday, December 23 from 10:00 AM to 12:00 Noon at St. Agnes.

NOTE: There will be no confessions heard the afternoon of Saturday, December 23.

A Note from Deacon John ...

Thanks to so many who have contributed to our annual fund collection this year. As of this writing, over $57,000 has been donated so far. This allows us to have done the refinishing of the doors at Saint Mary, we have ordered the new statues of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Joseph for Saint Agnes and are reviewing bids for the auto-opening doors for the handicapped at each church. If you have not donated so far, and still wish to before year end, please do so. Checks made out to Precious Blood Parish and write annual fund in the memo section. Again, thanks to so many.

This past weekend, our Day with Mary, held at Saint Agnes Church, was a great success. Over 250 people attended the retreat day, and over 150 confessions were heard. Thanks to all those in the Legion of Mary here that arranged for and promoted this day. Thanks to the Franciscans of the Eucharist who conducted the day, and their team of volunteers who helped so much. What a blessing this day was for our parish.

Know that all the priests and deacons of our parish continue to pray for all of you and are always grateful for your continued support and prayers. Thank you so much.

Deacon John

JOHN RIGELY FOOD PANTRY HOLIDAY/WINTER FOOD DRIVE

Please help the food pantry ministry restock the shelves for the upcoming holidays and winter months.

Items most needed are:
Cereal, instant oatmeal, coffee, hot chocolate, mac & cheese, tuna, tomato sauce, pasta, cookies, crackers and fruit cups.

Thank you for all your generosity and support throughout the year

From the Desk of the Pastor

A SPECIAL MESSAGE BY WAY OF EXPLANATION

The Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas

As it does on occasion, Christmas this year falls on a Monday. This necessitates a note of explanation with regard to Mass obligations for the weekend as well as Christmas itself. All Catholics are obliged to participate at Mass each Sunday. We also are obligated to participate at Mass on holy days of obligation. Only for the most grave of reasons can anyone excuse themselves from fulfilling this duty. The weekend of December 23-24 is the celebration of the Fourth Sunday of Advent. Masses that fulfill the obligation for Sunday include the vigil Mass on Saturday and the morning Masses on Sunday. However, the Masses offered on Sunday afternoon, December 24, are for Christmas and participation at those Masses fulfills the obligation for Christmas as do the Masses celebrated on Christmas morning. One cannot go to just one Mass and in the process fulfill both obligations. While this may seem to be a burden for some, we should keep it in perspective. God blesses us and sustains us in so many ways constantly. In return, God asks of us relatively little, namely that we gather in community to worship on appointed days, that we spend some quality time each day in prayer, and that we try sincerely to live by the teachings of his Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ.
