LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Christ is making a journey into each of our hearts this Advent. Clear away whatever blocks his way. Make straight the path. Invite him in.

IMPORTANT

Due to Christmas & New Years Day falling on a Monday this year. There will be no Novena on Monday, Dec 25th and Monday Jan 1st.

DECEMBER 17, 2023

The Knights of Columbus are selling Luminaries this weekend after all Masses at St. Mary's. The Luminaries will be a lighted display at all the Christmas Masses at St. Mary's and add a personalized festive touch to the Christmas decorations in the church. You are encouraged to add your personal decorations to each Luminary—markers and such are available at the table, or you can take it home and return it decorated the following week.

At the same time, the Knights will be selling Keep Christ in Christmas car magnets and lapel buttons to show your support of the true meaning of Christmas. Stop by Father Cronin Hall as you exit the church to see what is available.

 The tradition of the Oplatki originated in Poland. The Oplatki are enjoyed by families, typically right before the Christmas Eve meal. Oplatki is available now in the rectory office or in the sacristy at both churches. The cost for Oplatki is $3.00 per pack.

The Peter F. Phelan Jr. Giving Tree Committee would sincerely like to thank the Parishioners of St. Mary church for their overwhelming generosity. The abundance of thoughtfully purchased gifts brought such joy to so many needy men, women and children. GOD BLESS YOU ALL AND HAVE A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY AND HEALTHY NEW YEAR!

Deacon John's list from this past weekend's homily:

Top Ten things God Won't Ask

1. God won't ask what kind of car you drove; He'll ask how many people you drove who didn't have transportation of their own.
2. God won't ask the square footage of your house; He'll ask how many people you welcomed into your home.
3. God won't ask about the clothes you had in your closet; He'll ask how many you helped to clothe.
4. God won't ask what your highest salary was; He'll ask if you were generous with what you had, however much that was.
5. God won't ask how important you were; He'll ask if you did something important for someone who needed it.
6. God won't ask how many friends you had; He'll ask how many people to whom you were a friend.
7. God won't ask in what neighborhood you lived, He'll ask how you treated your neighbors.
8. God won't ask if you prayed all the time and went to church each week, but He will ask if you recognized Him when you met Him.
9. God won't ask why it took you so long to seek forgiveness, He'll lovingly offer you forgiveness, even when we do not deserve it.
10. God won't ask if you were fed by this Eucharist today, God will ask, "did you go and feed someone with my presence that you gained here?"

CONFESSION SCHEDULE

NOTE: There will be no confessions heard the afternoon of Saturday, December 23.

From the Desk of the Pastor

Dear Friends:

Our short season of Advent is progressing quickly. This Third Sunday in Advent is known traditionally as Gaudete Sunday, the Sunday of rejoicing. The season of Advent is focused on hope-filled, joyful expectation of the coming of the Lord. Now, with just little over a week to go, our hope is uplifted at how close the Lord is to us.

The words of St. Paul in the second reading for today's Mass, two simple words, sum it all up so well. "Rejoice always." The words are one thing. The reality, alas, for many of us, can be quite another. We live in a world where there are daily threats to peace, especially in the Middle East and in the ongoing aggression against the Ukraine by Russia. Issues on the national level, ranging from the economy and inflation, to open borders, to the ongoing dysfunction in Washington, fill many with concern. What is there to rejoice about? While I am not so naive as to suggest that we outrightly ignore the major issues of our time, we should keep everything in perspective. The world is from the hand of God, is in the hands of God, and in the end, will return to God. Our task in the meantime is to live the message of Jesus, following the commandments, especially the commandment to love, doing our very best to be faithful disciples, and then leave the rest to God. If that is the task we embrace, then we have every reason to rejoice. "Rejoice always."

This Wednesday, December 20, marks the 37th anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood. That fact makes me marvel at the sheer passage of time. Thirty-seven years have passed so quickly. Where has the time gone? Many of you perhaps have wondered the same thing with regard to your marriages or other aspects of your life. For my part, I am grateful for the years I have been blessed to serve the people of the Archdiocese of Hartford as a priest, and especially grateful for the years I have been the pastor, first of St. Mary Parish, and now of Precious Blood Parish. I ask for your prayers for me and for my remaining twelve classmates from the ordination class of 1986. There were fifteen of us. Two have died and one left the priesthood within a year or two of ordination.

Please take good note of my message regarding Mass attendance obligations for next weekend, as the Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord [Christmas] on Monday comes so quickly upon the Fourth Sunday of Advent.

Have a good, final full week of Advent!

Rev. Joseph J. Ximenes

A SPECIAL MESSAGE BY WAY OF EXPLANATION The Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas

As it does on occasion, Christmas this year falls on a Monday. This necessitates a note of explanation with regard to Mass obligations for the weekend as well as Christmas itself. All Catholics are obliged to participate at Mass each Sunday. We also are obligated to participate at Mass on holy days of obligation. Only for the most grave of reasons can anyone excuse themselves from fulfilling this duty. The weekend of December 23-24 is the celebration of the Fourth Sunday of Advent. Masses that fulfill the obligation for Sunday include the vigil Mass on Saturday and the morning Masses on Sunday. However, the Masses offered on Sunday afternoon, December 24, are for Christmas and participation at those Masses fulfills the obligation for Christmas as do the Masses celebrated on Christmas morning. One cannot go to just one Mass and in the process fulfill both obligations. While this may seem to be a burden for some, we should keep it in perspective. God blesses us and sustains us in so many ways constantly. In return, God asks of us relatively little, namely that we gather in community to worship on appointed days, that we spend some quality time each day in prayer, and that we try sincerely to live by the teachings of his Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ.
