

Precious Blood Pastoral Council

Minutes for Nov. 15, 2017

1. Opening prayer was offered by Fr. Aidan Donahue
2. All members were present and introduced themselves with a small autobiography of family, work, etc.
3. Fr. Aidan reviewed the purpose of a pastoral council according to Church law. Father also mentioned a few items for consideration by the council: the members should oversee the parish, be transparent to the parishioners, help in pastoral planning, envision the future of the parish using a 5 year plan and determine the needs of the parish and pass it on to the finance committee.
4. Committee consisting of Hilma Nolan, Mike Dorney, Pam Amendola, Brian Burgh and Bob Lessard volunteered to draft a new parish mission statement.
5. Robert Lynch headed up a discussion of repairs and improvements made and needed to the parish plant.
6. Each member then submitted their idea of how the Mass schedule can be improved for each Church for the betterment of the parish.
7. Fr. Aidan offered a closing prayer and the meeting was adjourned.
8. Next meeting will be 1/10/18 in Father Cronin Hall.
